

Subject List

IFHE Digest 2025

Health Services around the world continue to struggle. Coming out of the pandemic and striving for Net Zero all present challenges. I am sure many of you have interesting experiences that colleagues would like to hear about. We would be pleased to receive articles related to the following:

Covid. How Healthcare organisations have coped post Covid

Other areas of interest include:

Acoustics

Noise reduction in healthcare settings

Artificial Intelligence

How is AI making advances in Healthcare?

Asset Management

How do you know where all your assets are located?

Authorised Engineers

Experience of providing appropriately trained individuals to ensure Medical Gas, Ventilation, Decontamination and Water Systems comply with regulations and are operated correctly.

Building Management Systems

Carbon Zero

Strategies being adopted by healthcare to help reduce Carbon to zero

Construction

Offsite modular construction

Care for the elderly

How modern technology and design can assist the elderly and particularly those with dementia still live at home.

Green Energy

The use of alternative sources of energy such as Solar, Wind and Heat pumps

Information Technology

How is IT helping the Estates function control its plant and equipment?

Lighting

Advances in the use of LED lighting with particular emphasis on colour rendering

[Type here]

I.F.H.E. Administrative Secretariat, 2
Abingdon House, Cumberland Business
Centre, Portsmouth PO5 1DS, England

Nurse Call Training

Advances in nurse call services to the patient

Bringing the next generation of maintenance staff and managers into an ever changing Healthcare environment.

Plus any other items authors feel will be of interest to the worldwide
Healthcare community

[Type here]

